SEAT ASSIGNMENTS:

Alfred Street Baptist Church will assign ALL seats. The Kennedy Center did not assign ANY seats. For each section, seats were assigned based on the order in which the tickets were purchased. Please note: seats in some sections of the theater are not consecutively numbered. This means that two seats next to each other may not have ticket numbers that are in order or consecutive. If you purchased more than one ticket, you were assigned seats that are next to each other. Please DO NOT BE ALARMED if the numbers on your tickets are not consecutive. For example, if you purchased 2 tickets, your envelope may contain two tickets that are numbered: Section TR2, Row B, Seat 101 and Seat 103. Seats 101 and 103 are next to each other although they are not consecutively numbered. Similarly, you may have tickets that are numbered Section Orch, Row CC, Seat 2 and Seat 4. Seats 2 and 4 are next to each other although they are not consecutively numbered.

ACCESSIBILITY:

Every level of the theater is fully accessible. Ushers will take walkers, canes and wheelchairs and store them. If someone in a wheelchair is not comfortable transferring to a seat, then mark "Yes" that you need to reserve a wheelchair accessible seat on the registration form. The theater allows you to have up to 3 people sit with you. Wheelchair accessible seats are available on first come first served basis. There are a limited number of seats. If you select "Yes" you need to reserve a wheelchair accessible seat, it does NOT mean the seat is guaranteed. The church will follow-up with you. Wheelchair accessible tickets will be given out on a first come first serve basis. It is better to do this in advance of the show while the wheelchair accessible seats are still available.

LOST TICKET:

If you pick up your ticket early and misplace it or accidentally put it in the washing machine, plan to arrive to the Kennedy Center Box Office early to pick up a reprinted ticket. The church maintained a list of each ticket number assigned to each purchaser. The Kennedy Center will have this list. Give your first and last name to receive your ticket. If a ticket is reprinted, it will have "Reprint" stamped on it and the original ticket is automatically invalidated. You will have to return to Will Call to pick up the reprinted ticket. See arrival information below.
